FATALLY WOUNDED HIS WIFE.

John Kelly, seventy-five years old, a retired contractor and real estate dealer, fatally wounded his wife, Margaret, seventy-three years of age, the police assert, early yesterday in their home in Cincinnati, Ohio. Kelly then tried to commit suicide by beating out his brains with a hatchet, the weapon used upon his wife. Mrs. Kelly is at a hospital with her skull fractured. Kelly, although severely hurt, will recover. Within a few days the couple were to have celebrated their golden anniversary. They prepared to go to church yesterday morning, and the quarrel came when Kelly accused his wife, it is alleged, of drawing upon their saving account without his knowledge. Kelly, the police say, seized the hatchet and beat his helpmate fiercely with it. A daughter returning from church found her father battering himself and went for assistance. Both the aged people were unconscious when the neighbors arrived and they were taken to a hospital.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Struck by lightning during a severe storm in Gloucester county, Va., yesterday afternoon, Saunders Hobson, prominent in business and social circles of Richmond, lies at the point of death and without medical attention, while a race against time is being made by relatives and friends in Richmond. A special train, composed of the cars of the president and general manager of the road, left over the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad about 10 o'clock last night for a record run of forty-nine miles. It carried three physicians, two nurses, and several other Richmond persons. Mr. Hobson is a member of the firm of Hobson, Massie & Leigh, bankers and brokers, and members of the New York Stock Exchange. He owns a large plantation near Pemberton, in Gloucester county, and usually spends his Sundays there. The only account of the accident yet received states that he was walking through his estate when struck by lightning.

DEER KILLS BULL DOG.

A fight to the death between a bull dog and a buck deer was one of the sights in Riverside Park, Pittsburgh, Pa., Friday afternoon. The buck won handily, killing his bloodthirsty antagonist without receiving more than a few wounds himself.

The bulldog, a prize winner, was taken to the park by his owner, Mrs. Walter Dun. She had the animal on a chain, but when he spied the buck deer he upset Mrs. Dun, pulling the chain from her hand, and the fight was on. The dog missed landing on the first rush, and this was fatal, as the buck met the second rush with a vicious kick, which sent the dog flying. Several times the dog came back, only to be blocked by the vicious feet of the buck, which finally jumped into the air, coming down with all four feet on the prostrate dog. The bulldog was valued at $500.

SUICIDE ON EVE OF WEDDING.

Wedding guests to the number of a score came to the little house at 511 Greenwich street, Philadelphia, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. They were friends of Nathan Presser, a young man who lived there with his father and sisters. He was to be married at 10:30 o'clock to handsome and wealthy Rose Schattenschein, of Allentown, and his friends had come in gala dress to wish him godspeed and to go with him to Allentown for the wedding. But instead of a place of festival the laughing visitors came suddenly upon a house of sorrow. At 2 o'clock the bridegroom-to-be had poured oil over his clothing and set a match to it. A moment later he had been found whirling in a flame in his bed room, and at 5 o'clock he died. It is said his bride-to-be had refused to advance him money to start him in business.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT.

Former Principal Edward Sullivan, of the Exeter, Pa., schools, was found guilty yesterday of assault and battery because he kissed pretty Miss Agnes Finn, one of the school teachers. She declares that he was violent, and she objected, as far as her strength would allow, to being kissed by Sullivan. She told the jury he entered her school room at recess time, and as she sat in a chair threw his arms around her and kissed her several times against her will. She was so angry, she declared, she threw a paper weight at him, whereupon he slapped her cheeks, pulled her hair and bit her lip.
